FLOODGATES OF BLOOD AND LUST WERE OPENED

Awful Retribution Taken Upon Arabs by the Italians in Tripoli—Memory of Terrible Massacre Will Take Long to Live Down.

London, Oct. 31.—The Tripoli correspondent of the Times, describing Italian retribution upon the Arabs, adds that although the ruthless measures employed were not to be commended, yet the necessity for drastic action, to quell the anarchy, could not be denied.

"The Italians, having set themselves to cure the Arabs," continues the report, "the flood gates of blood and lust were opened in many cases the men got beyond control. The innocent suffered with the guilty and the memory of this awful retribution will take long to live down."

Even making allowances for the exigencies of the military situation, there is every possibility that the hideous severity employed by the Italians will give rise to a war of sanguinary and pitiless reprisals upon unfortunates who fall in the way.

The Enemy of Persistence.

Tripoli, Oct. 30.—Troops that are guarding the outskirts of the city are fighting a threatened Arab mob. The Arabs are being driven back and the Arabs in the pestilence which is feared on account of the decomposition of hundreds of bodies of Arabs and Arabians abandoned in the trenches unburied. The danger is immediate and apparently beyond remedy, because the Italians seeking to bury the dead have been fired on by the enemy. Remonstrances made to the Arabs have been of no avail. Their soldiers were not respecting the conventions of civilized warfare, but the Turkish disinclination to responsibility for the action, fearing that the shooting was done by marauders and the barbarous hordes of Arabs from the interior that do not know the rules of civilized warfare and that are completely beyond the control of the Turkish officers.

Italians are Anxious.

The answer has angered the Italian officers, who declare that the Turks are exclusively responsible for the shooting, and that they have incited the fanatic Arabs and Bedouins into a sacred war, which makes any attempt to perpetrate an enemy a humiliating for future wars and hardships.

Meanwhile, the troops at the front have drawn their lines closer to the city and the movement has been for the best, because it has concentrated the forces and brought them closer to the base of supplies.

Great difficulty is experienced in communicating and the troops are on the outskirts. The wells are far and far between and the water streams are parched. It is believed that the Turks have damaged the streams, in order to cut off the supply, the water being then turned into the desert, where it soaks into the sand and is lost.

Tripoli is fast to face with a serious water famine, although several tank ships have been rushed from Palermo, carrying plentiful supplies of water.

Soldiers Pay Tribute in Blood.

Rome, Oct. 30.—The Italian nobility, like the people, are paying tribute in blood in the African quest. Word has reached here of the death of an Italian officer, Tripoli, of the Duke Riccardo D'Amico, Duke Della Rovere, a lieutenant in the navy, and of the serious wounding of Count Pompeo Di Campello, a lieutenant of cavalry and gentleman waiting to the King.

Anarchist Shot Italian Colonel.

Rome, Italy, Oct. 31.—While the 20th Regiment was on its way to Tripoli this morning, an anarchist among the reserve shot and wounded the colonel. The men of the

WHYTE AVE. WILL NOT BE PAVED THIS FALL

Public Works Committee Reported Last Night That From Private Work—How Will Traffic Be Accommodated?—Mayor and Council Members Have Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Strathcona council was held last evening in the council chamber with a full attendance of the aldermen. The meeting at some points became quite heated.

Correspondence.

A letter was received from the department of highways and main stationing that the C.N.R.'s request that they be allowed to change their right of way to the approach into the city, would be brought up on November 21st. The letter was referred to the railway committee.

A letter was received from the Strathcona Milling Co., concerning their taxes. They said that they had received notice from the assessor that the payment of their taxes was due, they would have paid them but they had to wait for the city to receive any notice from him until just recently. They also said that they had been told by the city engineer to wait until keeping the city's books as well as to be paid by the city. The letter was read before the council and it stated several things very plainly, one of which was that the city was perfectly capable of keeping their own books.

A petition was received from Prof. Miller concerning a certain lane which he had been asked to acquire. The lane was in such a way as not to divide the city.

On Motion of Ald. Rankin and Richards the matter was left in the hands of the city engineer and the public works committee.

A letter was received from the Strathcona Land Syndicate Co., asking that the city lay out a road in their property. This matter was also referred to the city engineer and public works committee.

A transfer was made by the Strathcona city engineer to the city of Strathcona. This matter was left to the city engineer and the public works committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

Compensation.

The next item of business reached in the regular routine was complaints. A day and the aldermen were asked to have their books prepared properly. The city engineer and the city engineer also pointed out where the city made a great mistake in not fixing up the city.

Mr. Oliver filed a complaint concerning the taxes of the Orange Hall.

He thought they should be allowed something by the city because they had been asked to acquire the property. Ald. Calver advised the complainant to put his request in writing.

Hugh Murray, who has the right of way for the winter safeguard, complained that the city engineer's work had not been done properly and that he wished this matter would be looked into before he took over the work.

The matter was turned over to the city engineer.

Ald. Calver suggested that the city inspector look over some of the

Rayo

The Ideal Reading Lamp

Opticians agree that the light from a good oil lamp is easier on the eyes than any other artificial light.

The Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made.

It gives a strong, yet soft, white light and it never flickers. It preserves the vision of the young; it helps and quickens that of the old.

You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for other lamps, but you cannot get better light than the low-priced Rayo gives.

Made of solid brass, unadorned. Easy lighted, without removing shade of chimney. Easy to clean and revivify.

INFANT EMPEROR THROUGH HIS ADVISORS APPEARS TO PEOPLE

Chinese Throne Concedes Every Demand Made By Assembly.

Young Manchus May Now Revolt

Throne Proposes to Cut Off Their Pensions and Make Them Work.

Peking, China, Oct. 31.—The state of terror which has taken possession of the entire imperial court was further evidenced today by the long list of edicts supplementing yesterday's remarkable proclamation and offering further concessions of a most radical character. Today's edicts indicate that even though the dynasty survives Manchuria is at an end. The transfer even of cabinet offices to native Chinese is conceded, and the throne avows that "hereditary Manchus" Chinese shall be regarded as "equals," meaning that the elaborate system of Manchu positions, which are now paid to practically every member of the family, will be discontinued and Manchus left to earn their living by their own enterprise.

Today's edicts, like those of yesterday, are written in the first person as coming from the infant emperor himself. This is unusual, and is apparently a device adopted by the throne's advisors to create among the people a feeling of personal loyalty for their severance. The edicts make a complete capitulation to the demands of the National assembly and even go so far as to offer extravagant promises to the rebels for bringing about the great reforms which are going to be made.

Condemns Manchu Officials. The throne's edicts acknowledge its inability to resist the pressure of affairs; asks that its lapses be pardoned and requests the assistance and advice of all citizens. Finally it makes an effort to rally Chinese and Manchus alike to the great standard by hinting at grave foreign dangers which it thinks should be faced by a united China. In this regard, regarding the infant emperor even concedes many of his chief interests. The present situation, he declared, has not brought the interest of the people but only his own prestige. The revolutionaries are unimpressed by the flood of edicts from the emperor. They declare the dynasty's partial surrender has come too late. Moreover they do not trust the throne, regarding their present position as too strong for yielding to promises which they feel are insincere.

The revolutionaries point out that such edicts as these, wherein the throne's own apologies and relatives are called thieves and scoundrels do not tend to encourage their confidence. "What the edicts state regarding the methods of the present administration is, of course, admitted by the revolutionaries, but the throne's plea of ignorance hitherto is regarded as incredible."

Manchus Talk of Massacre. But, while the throne's promises are fully met by their hopes for effect in the constitution of the rebels, they have stirred up a most formidable opposition from a new source. The announcement that the Manchus office holders must go, and that all Manchus positions will be cut off immediately, produced pronounced disaffection in the ranks of the Manchus, and many members of this race at once began talking of massacre and of revenge. There were indications war loan which year people make to the Manchus government for the purpose of prolonging a struggle against humanity and civilization. We avow positively that the loan will be repudiated by the republic of China, and beg you to warn your people from such an infamously act. (Signed) Chinese National Association, representatives of the Chinese people in America.

The following is a cablegram sent by the association tonight to the Anti-Government Association of Canton: "The Chinese of America nominate Woo Tin Hwang as provisional governor of Canton and also ask the viceroy of Canton, Chang Hsing Chi to resign."

FOLSTROM WILL FACE CHARGE OF MURDER

Finlander Accused of Killing Friend and Partner of Junkins, Will Come up for Trial in Supreme Court on Tuesday.

Charged with the murder of Herman Backman, his former friend, partner in work and now-convicted murderer, John Folstrom will face a jury in the supreme court tomorrow before Justice Simons. The trial is set for 10 o'clock in the morning and everything is in readiness to go ahead with the case.

The crime for which Folstrom stands accused was committed at Junkins, west of Wainman, on the night of October 26. Folstrom, Backman and a number of other Finlanders, were engaged in station work on the main line of the C. N. R. They had been drinking and quarreling. Finally Backman went to his tent, intending to retire for the night.

Folstrom, it is charged, fired seven shots from a .22 rifle into the tent, where Backman and another Finlander were in bed, one of the bullets hitting Backman with fatal results. Folstrom had a preliminary hearing at Junkins and was committed for trial.

Smith Trial on Today. The case of Clyde Smith, charged with false pretenses, is on trial in the Supreme court today. Justice Simons is hearing the evidence.

J. P. Williams, a farmer residing 65 miles from Edmonton, is the complainant and he was the first witness called by Crown Prosecutor Cowan this morning. Williams' testimony was to the effect that on September 21st, last, he bought a horse from a horseman and wagon at public sale, in this city. Smith, a defendant, was the auctioneer. The latter, it was alleged, assured Williams that the property then offered for sale was free of any claim, and later discovered that one Mr. Cuthbertson, had a mortgage on the property for $125. The former owner of the horse had given Williams a bill of sale. His name was given to the witness. Williams' evidence disclosed that a warrant was also charged for "Domestic" arrest on a charge similar to the one that resulted in the present prosecution of Smith.

On cross-examination by Mr. Ewing, counsel for the accused, Williams said he regretted to get into the case, and if Smith was innocent he hoped that a verdict of acquittal would be returned. Williams believed he had been defrauded and was not responsible. The trial will probably be finished this afternoon. At 2 o'clock the defense had a number of witnesses yet to testify.

LIONS TO HOLD SOCIAL. Arrangements are practically complete for the big social session to be held in the separate school hall to be under the auspices of the newly organized lodge in the city of the independent order of Lions. The affair is to be the nature of a celebration and the successful termination of the campaign prosecuted vigorously in the last few weeks to make the Edmonton one of the strongest in Canada.

The charter closes now with a large membership. Deputy Supreme Commander W. H. H. who had had charge of the work here, leaves after this meeting.

A programme suitably varied to keep everybody present interested throughout the evening will be carried out. Business sessions and other social contacts are among the features scheduled for the entertainment of the Lions.

A number of grand lodge officers are coming from Vancouver to be present at the meeting and they will probably have something to say of interest to those attending. W. W. Zorn, committee organizer for the order in Canada, will also be here with a party of Lions from Calgary, where he maintains headquarters.

A Guarantee to You

A Challenge to Competitors

BY LONG ODDS THE BEST CUSTOM TAILORED SUITINGS AND OVERCOATINGS YOU CAN BUY ANYWHERE AT THE PRICE

Such a thing as selling cheap clothing has never entered into our great plan of operating this big and growing custom tailoring plant—but before we took down a shutter-bought a yard of cloth—or hired a man to design, cut, fit, and make it up, we had it all figured out that good clothes could be made cheap—a lot cheaper than men had been paying for them—and a lot better at that.

And do you want a more lively demonstration of the fact that we were on right lines than the business we are enjoying today? If we had been on impractical lines we would have failed—if we had not produced men's dress to be absolutely right in the quality of the cloth, the cutting, the fitting, and the making, we would have failed —but we had the right idea, and the energy and enterprise to carry it through, and because of it half the people are wearing better clothes and buying them for less than they did before the SCOTLAND WOOLEN MILLS COMPANY became the factor in the custom tailoring trade that it is to-day. But getting right down to the kernel of the thing, right down to your present clothing needs, we can say this, that excellent as have been our stocks of woollens direct "from the mills to you" in other seasons we believe this year's weaves discount anything we have ever shown in finer qualities—the more out-of-the-ordinary patterns, the exclusive designs, and we're absolutely certain we've only one thought in the designing and making, and that is, give you more value than we ever have—and that's saying a lot—at the one popular price—$20, no more, no less.

EDMONTON PORTLAND CEMENT COMPANY, Limited

Lieutenant-Governor G. H. V. BULYEA, Chairman

As announced in all the daily papers of Edmonton, the shares of the Edmonton Portland Cement Company, Limited, will be advanced from par to $110 on the 10th of this month.

In successfully handling any great industrial enterprise, two results are necessary. One is to build the factory so that it will produce the product at the minimum cost and earn dividends, and the other is to create a large and active market for the shares. In the development of the Edmonton Portland Cement Company, Limited, for more attention has been given to the proper organization of the enterprise as an industrial plant to stock selling. The most competent cement plant engineers obtainable have been secured. The plant is being built on the most modern and scientific lines, and the methods of operating the plant are so thoroughly worked out and carefully determined, that when the plant is in operation in August next year, it will be working to a design as accurately prepared in advance as a building is erected according to the designs of the architect.

In other words, we know exactly how Portland Cement can be produced at this factory at a cost of 78c per barrel, and everyone knows what the market price is in the Edmonton district.

The plant is being constructed well inside the local market. That is, the output will be far less than the demand for same in this district, so that the price will always be made by eastern mills, and will be the eastern price, plus the freight rate to this district. This means that with a minimum output of 300,000 barrels annually, a market price exceeding $3.00 per barrel, and a factory cost of less than 80c—the plant can earn for its shareholders an annual net profit of more than $800,000, or 40 per cent. on its entire capital stock.

The quantity of raw materials already owned by the Company, is sufficient for the manufacture of more than 12,000,000 barrels of cement, and reckoning this material at the very low value of 20 cents per barrel, the shares of the Company will have a book value of more than $200 each when the plant is in operation. This fact, together with the rate of dividend which the Company will be able to pay, will easily bring the shares up to a recognized market value of $200.

But the market must be created, and it is for just this purpose that we are preparing to offer these shares all over Canada, on the 10th of November, at $110. This means a great deal for Edmonton. It means attracting the attention of the investing public throughout Canada to the opportunities of the Edmonton district. It is the first step towards making Edmonton the financial capital of Northwestern Canada. And in addition to this, it is the first step in a great plan which will have for its purpose, the attracting of the idle capital of the entire Dominion of Canada to this city, to be used in the meritorious enterprises of Edmonton and vicinity.

To local shareholders of the Edmonton Portland Cement Company, it means establishing a recognized price for their shares; a price which will give the shares a recognized value with banks and the investing public generally. And more than that, it means so advancing the price of these shares that the local investor who has shown his confidence in this great enterprise by subscribing for the shares early in its history, will be able to turn any part, or all of his holdings over, later on, at a substantial profit.

- Every good investment must have three qualities:
1. It must be absolutely safe; the actual value must be behind the investment.
 2. It must be profitable; that is, it must pay a fair return of interest or dividend on the investment.
 3. It must be negotiable; that is, the investor must be able to realize on his investment if it is necessary or desirable that he do so.

The shares of the Edmonton Portland Cement Company have now all of these qualities. The property which the Company owns will make the book value of the shares two for one when the plant is in operation. A dividend rate of about 40 per cent. is certainly without many competitors in the Northwest, and the market which is now being created all over Canada for the shares of the Edmonton Portland Cement Company, Limited, will make them easily negotiable.

$400,000 of this stock is already subscribed for by Edmonton citizens, and $100,000 more will be offered to the Edmonton public within the next ten days. But this will be the last opportunity to secure shares in Canada's first great industrial at the price of par value. Subscriptions may be made to
